School Council representatives have been selected by their classes. They have regular meetings to discuss projects, any issues raised by their classmates and ideas for improving the school. Pupil representatives are responsible for giving feedback to their individual classes.
Once the new school term starts, the school council will communicate what they are intending to achieve in school.